Geneva, September 25, 2024 – Baghera/Wines is proud to announce the successful wrapping up of its auction, dedicated to the prestigious “Cave de la Largeur” collection from Monaco. Held from September 16 to 20, this sale took place exclusively online – it attracted collectors and fine wine enthusiasts from around the world, once again confirming Baghera/wines' position among the global leaders in rare wine auctions. Notably, there was a significant increase in the registration of new online bidders.

a keen interest

Divided into five WOC (Wine O'Clock) sales over five consecutive days of online auctions, the sale brought together a unique spectrum of the finest examples of wines and champagnes, among the most sought after in the world. The lots offered included a unique selection of internationally renowned vintages from the greatest houses and vineyards. Burgundy and Bordeaux wines, in particular, generated significant interest, resulting in intense competition among bidders.

The star-lot of the WOC #83 sale on September 17, an assortment of 18 bottles from Domaine de la Romanée-Conti 2017, was sold for CHF 56'120, shattering its low estimate of CHF 36'000.

Baghera/wines

about baghera/wines, experts in exceptional wines

European leader in rare wine auctions based in Geneva, Baghera/wines offers a new approach to auctions of exceptional vintages by placing conviviality and sharing at the heart of their events. Since 2015, Michael Ganne and the team of passionate experts he has surrounded himself with have developed a bureau dedicated exclusively to rare wines, and guide collectors in all aspects of enhancing the value of a collection.

In 2018-19, the historic auction of Henri Mayer's personal cellar, to date the world's most important wine auction ever (CHF 34.5M), followed by an unprecedented auction exclusively dedicated to the wines of the Domaine de la Romanée-Conti and then by the final bottles from Domaine René Engel, propelled Baghera/wines to the position of European leader in wine auctions.

The experienced team working with Baghera/wines' experts offers excellent tailor-made professional advice to international collectors passionate about rare fine wines including the organization of masterclasses, as well as careful selection of wines for private tastings, dinners and events combining music and wine. In September 2020, Baghera/wines officially inaugurated its new Geneva establishment, incorporating a private club and boutique dedicated to fine wines, within the Beau-Rivage hotel, Geneva. In October 2022, the company further developed its activities in Asia, with the opening of Baghera/wines Singapore Ltd. The entity began holding physical and online auctions in Singapore from December 2022. In 2023, Baghera/wines France was set up to organize auctions in France, and a second club dedicated to collectors and events was inaugurated in Nuits-Saint-Georges.
